The Gargoyle of the Yoshinagas

When Yoshinaga Futaba wins the first prize in a lottery, the prize turns out to be a home security system in the shape of a stone gargoyle. The creation of Japan's greatest alchemist, Gar-kun attracts the attention of a succession of strange characters, including an insane toy manufacturer, a phantom thief and rival alchemists.

Leda: The Fantastic Adventure of Yohko

Yohko Asagiri is in love, but is afraid to confess her feelings so she writes a song to express her feelings. Much to her dismay, the love song she wrote acted as a bridge connecting the world in which she lived in to that of Earth's alternate world called "Ashanti." There, the ruler of that world wants her song so that he could use it to open a doorway to Yoko's world and conquer it with his armies.

Puella Magi Madoka Magica

After experiencing a bizarre dream, Madoka Kaname encounters a magical creature named Kyube. Madoka and her friend Sayaka are given the chance of gaining magical powers if they agree to make a contract with him. He will also grant them one wish, but in exchange they shall risk their lives by accepting the responsibility of fighting witches. Invisible to human eyes, witches are catalysts of despair in the areas they inhabit.

Shamanic Princess

From the Guardian World, home of mages, Tiara has been sent on a mission: recover the stolen Throne of Yord, the most powerful magic artifact of all. But Tiara finds herself in a dilemma - the Throne has been taken by her former lover, and there is more to the situation than meets the eye...

Strange Dawn

Yuko and Eri are two normal girls who are sucked into the alternate world filled with tiny people. The people of this mysterious world see them as their "Great Protectors" who can protect their land in a time of strife. Unfortunately, the girls have no powers, don't particularly like each other, and just want to go home.

Tower of Druaga: The Aegis of Uruk

In a summer once every 5 years, demons in the Tower of Druaga lose their powers. King Gilgamesh of Uruk invades the tower and finds out its secrets. As 80 years passed, the Uruk army fought back the demons and built a city on the first floor of Druaga - Metz Kier. Thus begins the story of a warrior named Jil who embarks on a quest for the Blue Crystal Rod, an artifact rumored to be in the highest floor of Druaga.
