Macross Plus

With a brief introduction, intermission, & concluding Q & A

Free admission; limited space: first come, first seated

Macross Plus (Japan, 1994) In 2040 AD, three former friends return to their home planet Eden and meet again. The two men with an old grudge, Isamu and Guld, are now test fighter pilots; and the disillusioned woman they both loved, Myung, is now the manager for Sharon Apple, a famous idol singer that is an artificial intelligence.

Isamu and Guld's rivalry turns deadly; Sharon is made self-aware and hungers for power; and Ghost, an unmanned fighter meant to replace human-piloted craft, is launched.

Aerial dogfights and Sharon's holographic light-show concerts showcase the spectacular art, animation, and music in this big-budget production.

Macross Plus exists in 2 versions, an original video animation (OVA) series and a movie. We are screening all 4 episodes of the OVA, each about 40 minutes long, in Japanese with English subtitles. There will be a brief intermission between episodes 2 and 3.
